Vineyard Notes	Situated in the Los Olivos District of Santa Ynez Valley, the vineyard runs adjacent to Ballard Canyon. Planted in 1998 and farmed organically since then.
Tasting Note	This block of the vineyard is handpicked and meant for Rosé from the start. Pale pink in the glass providing an enticing allure as the aromas vibrant strawberry and rose petals reach out from the glass. At first sip the wine is playful and full of life with flavors of crisp red berries up front and zippy citrus acidity on the finish. The finish, mouthwatering and in need of another glass to quench your thirst.
Geek Out Note	YOSHI: Named for our little joy. Friendly demeanor, happy personality. This block of Sangiovese is nestled in a cooler spot of the vineyard and picked earlier in the season to keep the natural acidity.
MiraLaguna Story	Founded in 2011 by Eileen and Willy Ma. Drawn to Santa Ynez by their love of the region, wine, and their Icelandic Horses which adorn each bottle. The wines are named for their beloved Icelandic Horses and the unique quality of each horse coincide with the style of the wine. For the Ma's growing grapes and making wine is a visceral experience of senses reawakened.
